

Welcome Days, our new student orientation held just before classes start in the fall semester, is a three-day event requiring significant planning and participation of many. Students may help in multiple ways, including the following:

- 1)